Awards:

Junior Division Winners	$25.00 Award each for a boy and a girl
Intermediate Division Winners	$25.00 Award each for a boy and a girl
Senior Division Winners	$25.00 Award each for a boy and a girl

Objective

To encourage 4-H record book keeping excellence by Kitsap County 4-H members.

Requirements

4-H Members who wish to participate in the contest for the best record books in Kitsap County will need to submit complete record books to their club leaders in the fall.

Record books will be judged after state fair (some projects may elect not to judge record books). If a project prefers not to participate in the county-wide record book judging, the club leader will need to arrange for someone to judge record books of members who wish to be considered for this award.

Club Leaders select the top record books kept by club members. Each club may submit six record books: one junior boy, one junior girl, one intermediate boy, one intermediate girl and one senior boy and one senior girl.

No application form is required for this award; however, a Kitsap Award Entry Form and a completely filled out record book scorecard are required. Leaders need to highlight "Record Keeping Award" on the 4-H Awards Entry Form. These two items need to be included with every record book submitted for the record book judging contest, inside the left pocket of each record book, and turned in by the due date.

The date will vary from year to year but typically will be the last week in September or early October.

The record book judging committee will select the top Junior, Intermediate, and Senior record books in the county for boys and girls from all the record books submitted for this contest.
