

TYPES OF ARROWS

_____ arrows are designed for use with straw targets. They are light, have pointed heads, and are fletched with small feathers.

_____ arrows are heavier and have longer feathers than target arrows. Points are shaped for easy removal from various objects.

_____ arrows are heavier than standard target arrows. They have large feathers and sharply pointed heads with two or more blades.

The _____ arrow shown may be used for practice or for small game. It should be used as carefully as a hunting arrow.

TYPES OF HEADS

Arrow points or heads are designed for _____ or _____ archery or for _____.

_____ HEAD

_____ HEAD

_____ HEAD